Italian-studies: Scholarly discussions in any field of Italian studies

Assistant Professor of Italian

The Department of French and Italian at the University of Wisconsin-Madison invites nominations and applications for a tenure-track position in Italian literature and culture of the Middle Ages at the Assistant Professor level, starting 24 August 2009. We seek candidates with native or near-native fluency in Italian, serious scholarly promise, and proven commitment to excellence in teaching.

Candidates should be willing to teach occasional courses in English on major figures of the medieval period and to participate fully in a vibrant undergraduate and graduate program. Additional secondary interests in Italian and Romance Philology are welcome.

Applications must include a letter of interest, CV, three letters of recommendation, and a writing sample. The search committee will begin its initial consideration of applications on December 1. To ensure full consideration, applications must be received by December 17, 2008.

Address applications to:

Professor Anne Vila, Chair, Department of French & Italian, 618 Van Hise Hall, 1220 Linden Drive, Madison, WI 53706. Electronic submissions will be accepted at acvila@wisc.edu with copy to clarn@wisc.edu.

The University of Wisconsin-Madison is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. A criminal background check may be required prior to employment.

Unless confidentiality is requested in writing, information regarding the names of applicants must be released upon request. Finalists cannot be guaranteed confidentiality.
